- All horses must be presented in the correct showing in-hand bridle. Either chain (preferred) or saretta
- Mares 4 years + are allowed to be presented in a leather head collar
- Dress code for Morphology: either traditional traje corto (country suit) or English riding attire (dark jacket, breeches, boots, hat, tie or stock...)
- Dress code for Functionality: Same as above for Morphology
- Tack: Either English, Spanish or Vaquera and rider with the correct matching attire. No martingales or breastplates
- All females are predominantly presented fully hogged with the option of leaving the forelock on. However, it is acceptable to show mares with mane – must not be plaited
- All males to be presented with a loose mane in Morphology and a plaited mane (long plait or ball plaits) in the Functionality. Plaited tails are optional
- Natural clear hoof oil

Please read the ANCCE
Rules & Regulations on the GB PRE website

Tails

- Yearlings male & female - Completely hogged
- 2 & 3 yr old fillies - Hogged at the top and cut to length accordingly
- 2 & 3 year old colts - Natural
- Mares - Hogged at the top and cut to length accordingly
- Stallions and geldings – Natural
- Scores for all fillies, colts and mares are 100% from morphology. Mares are encouraged to do the functionality test, and the results will contribute towards the BEST

Scoring

- Scores for all stallions and geldings are 75% from Morphology and 25% from functionality
- Only the 4-year-old functionality test only can be ridden with a whip (1.2m max length)
- Fly Veils are permitted in Functionality Tests

Functionality

- Bits for functionality
- 4 years olds snaffle bridles only
- 5 & 6 year-olds snaffle or double
- 7+ years old snaffle or double
- Functionality test can be found on the GB PRE website
- Once all horse are present in the arena and the arena has been closed, the preview lap shall start. Under the Judge's criteria, all the horses shall proceed to perform, at walk, between one (1) and three (3) laps by competitor number
- Horses shall exit the arena at walk, one by one from the closest end to their location. They shall walk down the center line of the arena and once they have reached the end, they shall perform at least three (3) laps at canter and afterwards they shall trot to the other end of the arena, also along the center line. Upon reaching the end, horse and presenter shall turn around and return to the center of the arena in trot where they halt
- Presenters have a limited amount of time, two (2) minutes and fifteen (15) seconds, to present their horses in movement
- Judges have five minutes to judge and score each horse individually
- In the functionality test the judge shall assess the horse's natural paces, walk, trot and canter, scoring aspects such as mechanics, rhythm, easiness, impulsion, and execution of good balance. Horses shall demonstrate the good handling or submission during the test. No penalties shall be given for mistakes by the rider; however, the rider must perform the specific figures for each test. Should there be a mistake while performing the test, the judge may stop the participation and indicate how the rider should continue. Three(3) or more mistake during the test shall result in elimination
